I built a marketing system that runs on its own. 4 lessons from month one.

Swipe for the breakdown →

01

Start with rules, not tools. Write down what's allowed and what's not.

02

Show up every day. A simple post on time beats a great post that's late.

03

Measure what leads to sales. Views feel good. Sales numbers help you decide.

04

AI makes it faster. But I still check every fact and price myself.

“

Followers feel good. Sales numbers help you decide.

Which of these matters most for your business right now?
