Many leads are lost at a point nobody talks about: the moment a lead passes from marketing to sales.

Swipe for the breakdown →

01

Every lead gets an owner the moment it arrives

02

Every step has a written meaning, so "follow up" means the same thing to everyone

03

A lead sitting too long in one step is flagged, not forgotten

04

Lost leads need a reason, so marketing learns which ads bring the wrong people

“

Ads can only buy attention. The board decides if that attention becomes money.

Who is in charge of that moment in your business?

Want me to review your lead flow?

Comment AUDIT or send a DM. The audit is free.